LATEST UPDATE

The Prez Sez:

Hello all! Hope everyone is staying cool and healthy in these uncertain times. On a lighter note, our specialties went off without a hitch! We were all able to regroup and have fun showing our beautiful Great Danes. Congratulations to all the winners! It was a fantastic group to judge! A special “Thank You” to all of those behind the scenes that made these specialties a success! We could not have done this without your hard work and passion to put on these events.

You know who you are. Sadly, we won't be meeting this month, but we will regroup in September. I hope all of you can join us in our zoom meeting coming up so we can catch up as we get prepared for the National in October. Again, stay cool (because its been a very hot summer) and stay healthy. Look forward in seeing you all at the shows!

Thank You!

Jim Howey

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Rescue: Susie did not request numbers for a rescue report.

Specialties: Bob reported that Marilee has finished the catalog, Susie will order the sandwiches and Rachel will pick them up. Cathy Schaefer is taking care of the judge's hospitality and dinner arrangements. Bob will bring his RV and has paid for power – the RV will be available for the judges. Tori has the ribbons and awards handled. Jim will bring ice. Ice chests will be supplied by different members, large buckets for ice for cool coats are in the club trailer, Mike will provide beverages, and Bob and Rachel will supply chips, cookies, and brownies. Maren and Tori asked Bob for a basic entry breakdown to be sent to them for ribbons, and the entries for parades so the Cyndy can complete the order – Bob will get the count from Julie Bradshaw tomorrow morning. The all-breed shows will probably start at 8am and the specialties are TBA, sweepstakes will be on Friday and Junior Showmanship will be on Saturday. Susie and Bruce will need a rough count of people for ordering the sandwiches. Mike will bring the club trailer Thursday afternoon. Susie will set up the raffle on Saturday as soon as they can. We will set up our tents for the raffle tables and lunch tables. Bruce and Susie are also making slobber rags for every entry to receive. Jim will ask Randy to take candid pictures for the club during the specialty.

Bulletin: Maggie reported that the bulletin is on schedule.

Pet Expo: Jim reported that there is no Pet Expo this year – he found that AKC Meet the Breeds will be happening in August in San Diego. Susie reported that the Great Dane Club of San Diego is already planning on attending.

Holiday party: Everything is set up so far for the venue. If you have read the bulletin and have any questions on the award process, contact Gary Romerosa or Maren Cornish. Please submit your award applications early or as you earn them to Gary.

Facebook: Gary reported that we need more exposure, so we need more people to like the page. Don't forget to tag the club in any relevant posts! The catalog ads from the specialty will be posted on the FB page after the show is over.

Nominating Committee: Maren reported that we had a great response from our membership and the nomination slate is almost complete. She thanked all of those that have stepped up to offer their time.

NEW BUSINESS

Board Member Activity: Jim will reach out to the inactive board member regarding their status and intentions.

OLD BUSINESS

Joy only has 2 people on the Breeder's Referral. She has one man talking to her right now about a harlequin male. Susie mentioned that the Breeder Referral should be on the Facebook page. Club Members please email your name, kennel name, colors bred,

Meeting was adjourned at 6:05pm

Respectfully submitted,

Tori Cornish, Recording Secretary

Benefits of Attending Handling Class

In my experience the benefits of attending a handling class are comparable to a child attending preschool. Both prepare the child/dog and parent/owner for what is expected when attending kindergarten/dog show. Starting a Great Dane puppy in a handling class for me is key in starting the relationship and teamwork of practicing what is expected when attending an AKC dog show.

The pup will see and understand a ring, the proper behavior when being examined and to know their place among other dogs. A handling class will build the dog and handlers confidence as a team, provides knowledge of ring rules and procedures, and should teach how to show your dog off with perfection and grace to be the "Stand Out" in the ring.

Even if the dog will be placed with a professional handler, attending handling class with your puppy will make that transition a whole lot easier, less scary for the pup and more enjoyable when attending a dog show.

Handling class made it possible for me to attend a dog show alone. Walking an 120lb 8-month-old Great Dane pup in one hand and pulling a heavy wagon on uneven ground, set up and be able to relax was an amazing feeling of trust.

I found out my pup knew her place on a blanket, did everything I asked of her in the ring and even allowed a stranger to hold her while I ran to the potty.

Yes, for me handling class will continue to be been our key to a enjoyable day at a Dog Show, strengthening our bond,.

Building memories and overall love for my show girls, Zamara and Isabella.
